MUSIC PUBLISHING AGREEMENT

Artist: _____
Label name: theSoundSystem I-label

This is a private parties agreement between _____ (the Artist, hereafter) and the music production label theSoundSystem I-Label (the Label, hereafter) here represented in the person of Diego Lanzi.

This agreement begins on _____ and it will end when parties will decide.

The Artist and the Label AGREE as follow:

i) the Label agrees to produce one master recording, consisting of tracks or songs written and performed by the Artist, to release it in digital format via the web, and to provide the physical distribution of artworks containing Artist's works in EU [the Artist may receive, if so decided by the Label, a promo-pack with from 5 to 50 copies of his/her release and some promos for dissemination in his/her local community (precise quantities will be determined case by case_this point does not hold for singles); any additional packages will be delivered at fair price upon request];

ii) the Label agrees to promote Artist's productions during gigs, events or promotional campaigns or through web-based resources as best as possible;

iii) the Label shall be responsible of all production and dissemination costs. It will recover such receipted expenses from gross revenue of artworks sales through a network of indie retailers;

iv) the Label and the Artist cooperatively decide to sell Artist's works in more than 100 e-shops and streaming services (i-Tunes, Beatport Spotify and the like; the complete list of music outlets can be requested by mail to info@thesoundsystem.eu). The Label has the exclusive right of selling and distributing the tracks, but the Artist remain the unique owner of his works. Net earnings, documented by means of reported sales, from these selling will be divided between the two parties as follows: 50% to the Label and 50% to the Artist (different shares must be negotiated case-by-case). Sales report will be available any twelve (12) months and payments will be executed by using a PayPal account or a bank transfer any six (6) months only if Artist's earned royalties are bigger than fifty (50) Euros. If this is not the case, Artist's royalties will continue of being cumulated in time till that bound is reached;

v) the Artist grants that his tracks are original and previously unreleased and he/she accept to publish with the Label his/her works under standard proprietary licences; the Artist cannot publish, or distribute, by his/her own the object of the present agreement and any violation of this norm will be legally persecuted;

vi) the Artist will fully cooperate with the Label, in good faith, for the production of the best possible recordings, by providing the music and lyrics embodied in tracks, or songs, in the decided format and at professional quality standards (.wav files 16bit or mp3 files at 320Kb/s); vii) the Artist gives to the Label the exclusive right of printing and selling worldwide his/her works in disc format (cd or vinyl) by means of its website (www.thesoundsystem.eu). Sales of physical copies will be reported any twelve (12) months, and the Artist will receive the 20% of the selling price of his/her disc. Money transfer terms and conditions as at point (iv).

viii) the Label and the Artist accept that no observation of duties or obligations of this Agreement immediately nullify it;

ix) the parties declare to be aware that the present agreement is only referred to the following tracks or songs (please put here songs or tracks you publish with our label or the product name):

x) the Artist and the Label are not reciprocally responsible for what they produce, or disseminate, outside of this agreement;

xi) the duration of this agreement is set to six (6) years, but a cooperatively decided end date can be negotiated between the Label and the Artist.
